Academic Program

Washington Unified transitioned to a comprehensive distance learning program that included three learning options for students: 1) An online educational program option, 2) a paper/pencil educational program option, and 3) an educational television program option. Families were contacted by their teachers or other school staff and able to choose the learning option that worked best for them. WUSD teachers provided daily lessons in CORE content areas both digitally and in a paper packet format. Special populations, including English Learners and Students with Disabilities, were provided with additional materials and supports, including online individualized instruction, to be able to access learning. WUSD adopted a "no harm" grading policy during school closure. The completion of lessons and activities was strongly encouraged, but not required in order to maintain compliance with guidance from the California Department of Education (CDE). Middle School and High School students were given the option to improve their grades by completing lessons and activities assigned by their teachers.

Social-Emotional Support Program

In addition to teacher contacts, WUSD counselors, our school social worker, and our contracted school psychologists and counseling service provider (All 4 Youth) continued to provide critical social-emotional supports during school closure utilizing phone calls and online meeting platforms such as Google Meet, Microsoft Teams, and Zoom.

Meal Distribution

WUSD nutrition staff prepared and distributed breakfasts and lunches daily throughout school closure, including providing meals for families during our regularly scheduled Spring Break. During school closure, 100,744 meals were distributed on a grab-and-go basis to all children under 18, regardless of whether or not they attended WUSD schools.

Technology Distribution

In order to facilitate the online learning options outlined above, WUSD provided Chromebook access to all families. 639 families chose to check out a Chromebook to provide access to 1251 students (47%) of our student population. 365 hotspots were purchased to help families who did not have reliable internet access. These hotspots are being distributed to students in need to be used in our summer programs and beyond.

Communication

WUSD created a "School Closure Information and Resources" section on each school's website which included a page dedicated to regular COVID-19 updates. The auto-dialer system was used regularly and all information pertaining to school closure was classified as "emergency" communications so that all parents and guardians would receive updates. Letters were also mailed from both the district office and the school sites pertaining to educational learning options, meal distribution, community resources, grading policies, etc. WUSD sought stakeholder input about school closure from parents, students (Grades 3-12), and staff using Google Surveys in order to gain important information about how to plan for the upcoming school year.

WUSD provided supports for Students with Disabilities including creating Emergency Distance Learning Plans that included modified lessons and individualized support from RSP and SDC teachers.

Designated ELD

English learners were provided with designated learning materials, including grade level ELD Choice Boards, and access to supplemental digital learning programs, such as Ticket to Read and Reading Plus. Designated staff members at each site contacted each English Learner by phone to make sure families were aware of the additional supports and could access them. Staff also provided on-going support as requested by students, including online tutoring sessions or phone calls. WUSD designed a technology-based summer school option specifically for at-risk groups, including English Learners which would provide remote small group instruction in Math and ELA using Google Meets to prevent learning gaps and strengthen English proficiency.

4. The LEA sought public comments in the development of its plan and took those comments into account in the development of its plan.

Describe the LEA's policy or practice that provided the public with an opportunity to provide comments and feedback and the collection process. Describe how any feedback was incorporated into the development of the plan.
