Title I Schools in WUSD

Title I schools with percentages of low income students of at least 40 percent may use Title I funds, along with other Federal, State, and local funds, to operate a "school-wide program" to upgrade the instructional program for the whole school. The following WUSD schools offer a school-wide Title I Program:

- American Union Elementary
- West Fresno Elementary
- West Fresno Middle
- Washington Union High
- Easton High
- Easton Community Day
- ELM High

Title I Funds

Programs and services paid for by Title I funds in WUSD schools include:

- Reading Intervention Teachers
- Guidance Counselors
- Supplemental Academic Programs
- Aeries Communications Tools
- Materials and supplies for students
- AVID
- Academic Coaches for teachers
- Instructional Aides in classrooms
- Intervention Specialists to support struggling students
- Technology (Chromebooks) for students
- On-site Counseling and Social Work Services

Meeting times can also be found on our website under "District Calendars" at <http://www.washingtonunified.org/calendars/>

Purpose of Title I Program

Title I Programs (Part A of PL 107-334 of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001), provide funds to districts in order to assist schools with the highest levels of economically disadvantaged youngsters to:

- Improve in student achievement for all participating children
- Improve staff development and
- Improve parental and community involvement.

Parent/ Guardian Survey

WUSD administers an annual Parent/Guardian Survey at each school site. The purpose of the annual survey is to gain parent feedback so that we can evaluate the effectiveness of the school's Title I programs and services.

Parent and Guardian Rights

It is your right to know about the programs and services available to your child and to provide input regarding your child's program placement and the services they receive.

- Annual Title I meeting with input to the Title I Plan
- Opportunities to meet regularly as Title I Parents and school members
- Be informed of child's progress and expectations through:
 - Annual parent-teacher conferences, Report Cards, Student-Parent School Compact, Annual review of assessments, Parent meetings, and newsletters
- English Learner Parent Notifications
- Parent training and resources funded by Title I allocations for parent involvement
- Provide feedback on Annual Parent Survey
- School Accountability Report Card (SARC)
- School Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA)
- Parent Involvement Policy

School Parent Involvement Policy

Each WUSD school has a parent involvement policy that is reviewed and updated annually with the help of parents and community members. The policy also lists different parent involvement activities that you can be a part of. Contact your school office today for a copy of the policy.
