Monitor Outcomes and Identify Patterns

Intake

- Formal complaints from allegations
- School sites

Investigation

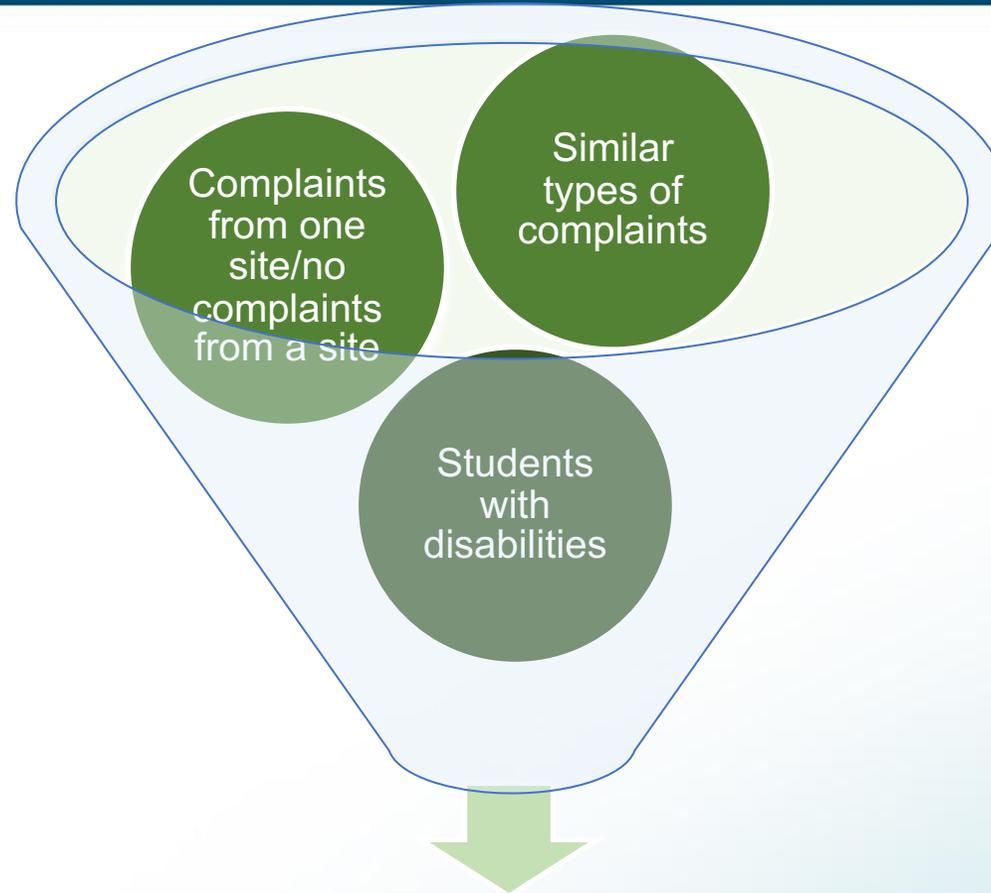

- In-house
- External
- Title IX and state Sexual Harassment

Outcomes

- Timelines
- Policy violations
- Discipline

Potential Patterns

Data analysis for planning purposes

Policy and Procedures Administration

- Review annually
- Take into account the time-consuming board review and approval process
- Set timelines for your process

Impartiality

- Be neutral – neither pro-Complainant nor pro-Respondent
- Consider the evidence as presented
- Confront and understand bias and not allow it to impact decision
- Maintain open mind as to the potential conclusions

Conflicts of Interest

- Relationship to parties or witnesses
- Professional conflicts
- Personal conflicts
- Actual and perceived

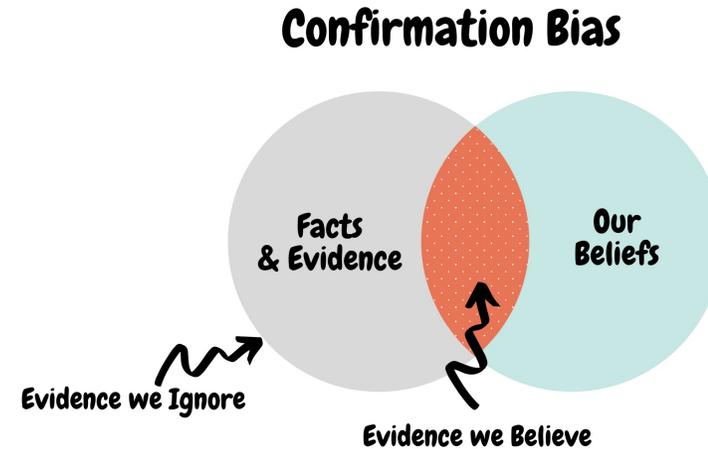

Stereotypes

- “A fixed, over generalized belief about a particular group or class of people.” (Cardwell, 1996)
- Stereotypes around sexual assault
- Stereotypes around sexual harassment
- Complainant and Respondent

Bias

- Conscious/Explicit
 - Discriminatory intent
 - Stated preferences
- Unconscious/Implicit
 - For the most part, most people are unaware of these drivers
 - Developed over a period time and can influence many factors in hearing
 - Short cuts developed by the brain and often play a role in:
 - Immediate response to conflict
 - Often mimics fear responses

Trauma

- Many Title IX causes of action involve trauma
- Title IX Coordinators should understand the impact of trauma on:
 - Reaction to trauma
 - Ability to capture memories
 - Recollection of memories
- Expectations around trauma victim

BREAKOUT SESSION 1

LEGAL OBLIGATION

Educational institutions must respond in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent when it has actual knowledge of sexual harassment occurring in the institutions' education programs or activities against a person in the United States.

Actual Knowledge

When sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment come to the attention of ANY EMPLOYEE of a K-12 district

All employees MUST report

LEGAL OBLIGATION

Educational institutions must respond in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent when it has actual knowledge of sexual harassment occurring in the institutions' education programs or activities against a person in the United States.

Jurisdiction Issues

- Occurring in the institution's education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the school exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurred
- Against a person in the United States

GP: Dismissal - Mandatory and Permissive

Mandatory dismissal

- Would not constitute sexual harassment as defined in regulations
- Did not occur in education program or activity
- Did not occur against a person in the U.S.

Permissive dismissal

- Complainant notifies Title IX Coordinator in writing that Complainant would like to withdraw formal complaint or allegations
- Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by school district
- Specific circumstances prevent the school district from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination

Title IX – Parties and Administrators

Parties

- Complainant – alleged victim/survivor
- Respondent – respond the allegation

Administration of Claims

- Title IX Coordinator
- Title IX Investigator
- Title IX Decision-maker
- Title IX Appeal Officer
- Title IX Advisor
- Title IX Informal Resolution Officer

Definition of Sexual Harassment

Conduct on the basis of sex:

- Quid pro quo - An employee who conditions the receipt of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.
- Hostile environment sexual harassment, defined as unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive and objectionably offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the school's education program or activity (emphasis added).

Sexual Assault

- Rape
- Fondling
- Incest
- Statutory Rape

Dating/Domestic Violence

Stalking

Notice of Interpretation - US Department of Education

- Bostick v. Clayton County
- Prohibition against sex discrimination includes protections for:
 - Sexual orientation
 - Gender identity

Grievance Process (GP)

- Respond promptly in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent
- Due process and fundamentally fair procedures to adjudicate the allegations
- Upon notification, supportive measures offered
 - Emergency removal
- Offer of formal process
 - Complainant files or Title IX Coordinator may file
- Both parties receive notice of the allegations
- Both parties participate in investigation and can inspect information gathered
- Separate decision-maker(s)
- Completed in a prompt time-frame
- Retaliation prohibited - designate the retaliation complaint process

GP: Emergency Removal Procedure

- Step 1 – Conduct a prompt individualized safety and risk analysis
- Step 2 – Immediate threat to the safety the physical health or safety of any student or other individual Arising from the allegations of sexual harassment
- Step 3 – Evaluate the applicability of disability laws to the removal decision
- Step 4 – Consider the appropriateness of supportive measures in lieu of an emergency removal
- Step 5 – Provide the respondent with notice and an “immediate” opportunity to challenge the emergency removal

GP: Supportive Measures

Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the complainant or the respondent and are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the District's education programs or activities without unreasonably burdening either party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the District's educational environment, or deter sexual harassment

GP: Offer of Formal Process

- Complainant offered formal process
- Complainant must file and request an investigation
- Wishes of complainant are to be respected

GP: No Formal Complaint Filed

- Title IX Coordinator may decide to proceed with investigation
- Title IX Coordinator does not become Complainant

GP: Informal Resolution

- Trained facilitators
- After formal complaint is filed
- Process must be detailed in writing
- Described to both parties
- Parties agree in writing
- Either party may end informal resolution before a formal agreement is accepted
- Never available when complainant is student and respondent is employee

GP: Notice of Allegations

- Detailed allegations against respondent
- Supportive measures offered to respondent
- No supportive measure can appear disciplinary

GP: Separate Decision-Makers

- Title IX Coordinator may serve as investigator
- Title IX Coordinator may NOT serve as decision-maker
 - Policy violation
 - Discipline
- Hearing panels permitted for K-12s but not required

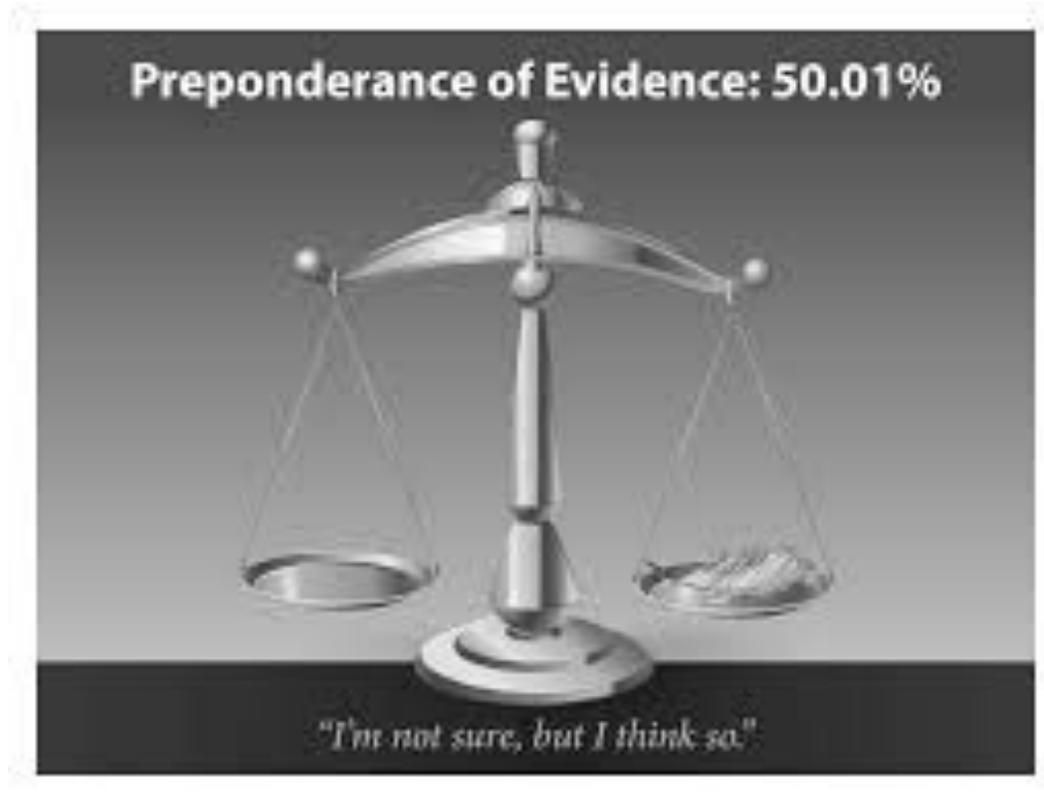

GP: Investigation

- Investigation gathers relevant and irrelevant information
- All information must be shared with both parties
- Parties have ability to review investigation report and outcome, provide comments/written questions and provide answers and limited follow-up

Burden of Proof

- Preponderance of the evidence
- Clear and convincing

GP: Decision-Maker

- Decision-maker must determine:
 - Policy violation
 - Discipline
- In K-12, discipline decisions against students with disabilities may require a manifestation determination
 - A Manifestation Determination is a process, required by the Individuals With Disabilities Education Act (IDEA 2004), which is conducted when considering the exclusion of a student with a disability that constitutes a change of placement

GP: Appeal

- Procedural irregularity in the Title IX grievance process affected the outcome;
- Newly discovered evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of the determination of responsibility or dismissal that could affect the outcome; or
- Due to a bias or conflict of interest by the Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or decision-maker that affected the outcome.
